BRIGHT STARS IN THIS WEEK'S BILL

High-Class Stunts for Amusement of Theatregoers—Miss Trancy and Her Pony.

Another great vaudeville show will grace the boards of the Casino this week. Mr. Ed Reynard, America's premier ventriloquist, and his famous mechanical figures, will be the feature. Mr. Reynard requires no introduction to two theatregoers, as he has been seen quite often in this city. His act is considered the best of this kind now playing in vaudeville, and is novel and highly amusing.

Miss Kitty Trancy, with a European novelty act, has made a great hit in New York. Miss Trancy carries a trained pony and some beautiful dogs that do all manner of stunts. She is herself a very attractive woman, and juggles various objects while riding around the stage in a miniature barouche.

Barry and Halvors will be remembered as late principals of the "Babes in Toyland" and "Wizard of Oz" companies. They have a neat little sketch and are said to be becoming very popular.

Griff Brothers, French gymnasts, do some very surprising work with their teeth. There is an interesting exhibition and does not partake of any of the misseum features that usually make up an act of this kind.

Phil Staats, a well-known comedian, who writes plays and sings his own songs; Miss Emilie Benner, a young lady with a wonderful baritone voice, and the cameragraph with new motion pictures. Reserved seat sale at Branch Allen and McCoy's drug stores.

Bad Man Killed.

(By Associated Press.)

CLINTWOOD, VA., June 16.—James Sweeney, who bore the reputation of being one of the meanest men in Pike county, Ky., just across the State line, has been murdered by Gilbert Hall, a liquor dealer, at the latter's cabin.

An old feud caused the tragedy. Both men had been drinking and engaged in a quarrel. Sweeney had been talking about Hall's niece just before the murder shot the victim with a shotgun. Hall then made an attempt to kill his niece, but she escaped injury.

Hall has been selling liquor to Virginia and Kentucky farmers a number of years and has many times been fined for violating the law in regard to the sale of whiskey.

Talton Hall, a nephew of the murderer, was hanged in Wise county, Va., for murder. It was alleged that Talton killed about eighteen persons.

Hanger—Fauver.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., June 16.—Miss Nan-nie Virginia Fauver and Mr. J. E. Hanger were married Thursday, by Rev. W. N. Scott, of the Second Presbyterian Church.

JEFFREYS FAMILY REUNION AND FINE OLD VIRGINIA HOSPITALITY

JEFFREYS FAMILY REUNION.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHASE CITY, VA., June 16.—Last week Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Jeffreys, at their children. The doors were wide open, residence here, entertained with an "old-fashioned Virginia dining" their extensive family. The number present was twenty-three, including children and grandchildren. The choicest viands in old Virginia style, with all of the accompaniments the markets afforded, were abundantly provided. The long table showed a bright and joyous family. In the afternoon Rev. Wallace A. Jeffreys, one of the sons, of the Methodist Conference, located at Highland Springs, near Richmond, christened five of the grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jeffreys are natives of North Carolina and were married thirty-six years ago. They moved to the county of Mecklenburg in 1858. Mr. Jeffreys was the pioneer in successful bright tobacco culture in this county. He has been awarded many premiums for the golden leaf, and one year realized $10,000 on his crop of brights. A few years ago he abandoned agriculture and moved to this town with his entire family. Since then he and his sons have been prosperously engaged in the business of leaf tobacco, merchandising, manufacturing, lumber and real estate.

Those present at this reunion were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jeffreys and five children, Chase City; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wallace and two children, Chase City; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jeffreys and one child, Chase City; Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Jeffreys and one child, Richmond; Messrs. Sidney B. Harvey E. Albert L. and Herndon P. Jeffreys, all of Chase City, Va.

The sons, W. H. and R. L. Jeffreys, married Misses Gooda, of this county. Mr. R. M. Jeffreys, the head of the family, is not yet sixty years old, but possesses all of the enterprise and indomitable energy of a much younger man.

PLAN ADOPTION OF UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE

Delegation from Parisian Bodies of Scholars in Charge of Propaganda.

(By Associated Press.)

BERKELEY, CAL., June 16.—President Wheeler, of the State university, has been asked to lend his support to a plan for the adoption of a universal language. A delegation from Parisian bodies of scholars is in charge of the propaganda. The delegation states in a letter to President Wheeler that in any case it does not specially advocate any one project, whether new or old.

It proposes simply to unite all partisans of an auxiliary in an expression of opinion to represent them and to arrive by an international agreement and a kind of arbitration, at a definite and universally accepted solution. For this purpose it invited all learned bodies, all associations of business men and tourists, to express an agreement with the declaration and to elect delegates.
